

Bad Dad Activities

Write a review of the story for the school website.

After reading the story, write the next chapter. What will happen for Frank and his Dad?

Change one chapter of the story into a comic strip.

What should others know about Frank? Summarise the main points in a poem.

Create a set of questions based on the book. You must supply the answers.

Research the charity swim that David Walliams completed for Sport Relief. What are the main facts that we should know? How could you present this?

Complete a role on the wall of Can you provide evidence to justify your opinion?

Create a Wordle or Poster with the examples of language that capture your imagination.

How many activities can you complete?

As an extra challenge, can you make an object or draw a picture from the story so that it would help someone retell the story?

READ

